Dear Brad:

Attached are our (i) Communication confirming entry of our amendment, and (ii) Issue Notification confirming that this application will issue as US8,445,867 on May 21, 2013.

The claims encompass the inventors' method of photobleaching and intermittency localization microscopy, or PhILM. This US application, the PCT application, and our priority provisional application are identical.

Absent contrary instructions from you I will allow this application to issue without filing any continuing application.
